

International Master Class - General Rules

1) Requisites

All the courses are open only to those students who have obtained their diploma from a certified Conservatory under the previous system or a first-level diploma under the new system. A copy of the diploma or an official self-certified declaration of having obtained one, including indication of the date and place in which it was obtained, is obligatory and must be sent together with a detailed CV or personal resumé.

2) Admission, fees and attendance

Admission is free. In case of requests exceeding the maximum limit, our School will consider them in order of receipt.

For validity of registration, all students must transmit not later than August 29th, 2016 at e-mail address: info@scuolamusicagoitrecolico.it:

- registration form duly completed and signed, together with the documents requested therein;
- payment of claim registration fees, in accordance with the procedures indicated in the registration form;
- this Regulation form signed for read and acceptance read and approved.

The fees are as follows:

- ✓ € 50 application fee (to be paid when submitting the application)
- ✓ € 200 course fee for "active participants" (to be paid the first day of course)

3) Disciplinary rules

The teachers have the authority to expel a student who, to their best and unappealable judgement, cannot achieve the desired results or does not attend lessons regularly.

4) Liability

Having read and understood these general rules and accepted the conditions, the student relieves the organization of all liability for any inconvenience, nuisance, damage or loss of any kind whatsoever to persons or things, even to him/herself, that might occur during the course of the lessons. The organization cannot, in any way, be held liable for the loss or theft of anything, including sums of money or personal belongings of the students.

5) Indemnity Clause

Insurance coverage is entirely the responsibility of the participant.

In undersigning these General Rules, the student assumes any and all responsibility should he/she be without insurance coverage in the event of accident or loss whether to him/herself or to others, holding the organization harmless and devoid of any liability.

In undersigning this form, the applicant formally agrees to participation under the terms and conditions provided for in these General Rules and as described on the application form.

6) The organization declares, in accordance with Legislative Decree 196/03, that personal data (including photos and audio-visual recordings) will be used and distributed only for administrative or didactic purposes. With the signature below you authorize us to use your personal data in full respect of your rights as set down in Article 7 of Legislative Decree 196/03.

I declare that I have read and understood that I accept the International Master Class General Rules as described above.
